

Getting to the Merseyside Maritime Museum

Please use these directions for the International Slavery Museum and Seized! Revenue and Customs uncovered – the national museum of HM Revenue and Customs – which are located within the Merseyside Maritime Museum building.

Address

Merseyside Maritime Museum
Albert Dock
Liverpool
L3 4AQ

By road:

The Albert Dock is on the waterfront close to Liverpool city centre and the Liverpool One complex. It is clearly signposted from the motorway and other main routes into the city centre.

The nearest car parks are located in the Liverpool One complex opposite the entrance to the Albert Dock. Q-Park Strand Street has 2000 underground spaces, Q-Park Gradwell Street has 560 multi-storey spaces and Q-Park John Lewis has 580 multi-storey spaces. The entrance to the Strand Street car park is opposite the Albert Dock and is accessible from the centre of the road in both directions. The Gradwell Street car park is opposite BBC Radio Merseyside and the John Lewis car park is located opposite the Paradise Street bus interchange and the police station.

Charged car and coach parking is also available at the adjacent King's Dock. Please note that the car park at Mann Island is now closed.

There are 3 blue badge parking spaces in the car park on the right hand side of the road leading into the Albert Dock, opposite the Dock Traffic Office building (the former Granada Television building). Another 4 designated blue badge spaces are available in the on-street parking on the right hand side of the approach road, which are slightly further away from the museum building. Charges apply for parking in both these areas.

By train:

Lime Street Station

Merseyside Maritime Museum is about a 20 minute walk from Liverpool Lime Street station - Liverpool's mainline train station. Leave the concourse via the exit closest to the ticket office (this route is also suitable for those requiring level access). You come out on Lord Nelson Street, facing the side of the Empire Theatre. Turn left out onto Lime Street (St George's Hall is opposite). Go left along Lime Street until you reach the pedestrian crossing. Cross Lime Street to St George's Hall, then cross the road again on the left, heading towards the Royal Court Theatre. Walk past the theatre towards the Queen Square Travel Centre (a large circular building with a clock on top) then head to the left of this, under an overhead walkway and across Williamson Square to the opposite corner. Walk down the street on the right between Sayers bakers and the Queen's Head pub and turn left at the end onto Whitechapel. Walk past the Met Quarter on your right and 08 Place on your left, cross the main street of shops (Church Street) and walk straight ahead through the Liverpool One shopping complex, towards John Lewis. At John Lewis turn right and walk past the amphitheatre steps towards Strand Street. Cross at the pedestrian crossing and go straight ahead into the Albert Dock. The Maritime Museum is straight ahead, just past the Pumphouse pub and Dock Traffic Office.

James Street station

James Street station is about a 5 minute walk away. This station is served by the Wirral Line trains only. Leave the station by the James Street entrance, turn right and walk down James Street, then turn left at the end onto Strand Street and walk down Strand Street, with the docks and river on your right, until you reach the entrance to the Albert Dock. There is a pedestrian crossing across Strand Street at the junction with James Street and another at the Albert Dock entrance. When you enter the Albert Dock by the main entrance the Maritime Museum is straight ahead, just past the Pumphouse pub and Dock Traffic Office.

Moorfields station

Liverpool Central station

Liverpool Central station is served by the same services as Moorfields. Leave the station by the main entrance, coming out onto Ranelagh Street. Turn left and walk down Hanover Street, which takes you to the Liverpool One shopping complex and the back of John Lewis. Walk round John Lewis to the ampitheatre steps, then past these towards the docks. Cross Strand Street at the pedestrian crossing and go straight ahead into the Albert Dock. The Maritime Museum is straight ahead, just past the Pumphouse pub and Dock Traffic Office.

By bus:

From Paradise Street

The Paradise Street interchange is the closest bus station, just across the road from the entrance to the Albert Dock.

From Queen Square

The S1 city circular bus goes from Queen Square to the Albert Dock. From 27 December 2008 this service will change to the route C4 city centre bus.

From Queen Square walk down Whitechapel, past the Met Quarter on your right and 08 Place on your left, cross the main street of shops (Church Street) and walk straight ahead through the Liverpool One shopping complex, towards John Lewis. At John Lewis turn right and walk past the ampitheatre steps towards Strand Street. Cross at the pedestrian crossing and go straight ahead into the Albert Dock. The Maritime Museum is straight ahead, just past the Pumphouse pub and Dock Traffic Office.

By coach:

Leave the National Express coach station by the main entrance and go right to London Road. Turn right, go down London Road, and turn left at the Empire
